Federal Work Study Confidentiality Statement

As a student employee of the University of North Carolina at Asheville, you may have access to information that is made confidential by federal law, such as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1232g, or state law, such as the Personnel Files section of the N.C. State Personnel Act, N.C.G.S. §§ 126-22 through -30, or other University rules or regulations. It is imperative that you maintain the confidentiality of that information.

All members of the UNC Asheville Community have the right to expect that all other members, in whatever role they may function, will respect their privacy and never disclose information in an inappropriate manner. The University needs to rely on your adherence to this principle.

I understand and agree with the above statement. I also understand that releasing any pertinent information that violates the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act is grounds for my termination in the UNC Asheville Federal Work Study program and I may face legal repercussions as a result.
